2015 Washington State Fallen Firefighters' Memorial Service

Honoring those who gave their lives

Olympia, Wash. - June 5, 2015- The public and media are cordially invited to join fire services from around Washington State at the 2015 Washington State Fallen Firefighters' Memorial Service.

This annual service will honor those firefighters who gave their lives in 2014 for the communities they served. It is sponsored by the Washington State Fire Fighters' Association, the Washington Fire Chiefs, the Washington Fire Commissioners Association, and the Washington State Council of Fire Fighters.

This year's ceremony will recognize the following firefighters:

- ATV Technician JB Bryson, Skagit County Search and Rescue
- Lieutenant John G. Fox, Bellevue Fire Department
- Captain Mark Normington, Spokane Valley Fire Department
- Firefighter/Inspector Keith Johnson, Seattle Fire Department

Date: Sunday, June 7, 2015

Location: Washington State Capitol Rotunda

Time: 3:30 pm (the start time is different than in previous years)

The service begins on the front steps of the Capitol Rotunda with a Pipes and Drums led procession and the retrieval of the Ribbons embroidered with the names of the fallen Washington firefighters. The procession of family members and Ribbons will then pass through a corridor of honor and move into the Rotunda for the remainder of the ceremony.

For fire departments who wish to send an apparatus to the service, please contact Battalion Chief Brian Carson at 206-920-7040 or bcarson@kentfirerfa.org. A limited amount of reserved parking for fire apparatus will be provided.

For media inquiries, please contact Captain Kyle Ohashi at 206-450-8400 or kohashi@kentfirerfa.org.

For all other inquires and information, please contact Service Coordinator Pat Ellis at 253-740-8555 or pellis@kentfirerfa.org.
