Professionally and Compassionately Helping People

Hazardous Materials Response Simulation
Public encouraged to attend

Kent, Wash. - June 26, 2016- The Kent Local Emergency Planning Committee (LEPC), in conjunction with the Kent Regional Fire Authority, Zone 3 agencies, and UNIVAR USA will be holding a joint hazardous material drill June 29, 2016, from 9:00 am until noon.

Community members and local businesses are invited to attend and observe. If you are interested in attending this training event, please notify the Kent Office of Emergency Management at KentOEM@Kentwa.gov to register as an observer.

The City of Kent Local Emergency Planning Committee is committed to preparing for hazardous material incidents. This preparedness involves emergency response agencies, hazardous material facilities, area businesses, and the residents of the Kent area. You can do your part by learning what hazards exist within your community and how you can best prepare for emergencies.

If you have any questions, contact Kent Office of Emergency Management at 253-856-4440.
