Covington House Fire

Covington, Wash. - November 7, 2015- A bedroom fire in the 26200 block of 200 Ave. SE was quickly extinguished this morning by firefighters from the Kent Regional Fire Authority and Maple Valley Fire and Rescue, after the resident came home to find the fire on the second story of his home.

The 9-1-1 call was made at 6:46 AM, and the owner's roommate, who was home at the time of the fire, was able to get out safely.

The fire damage was limited to the bedroom where it started, though there was smoke damage throughout the house.

The fire is currently under investigation. There were no working smoke alarms.
