Kent House Fire

Kent, Wash – September 29, 2018 – Firefighters from the Puget Sound and Renton RFAs responded to a house fire in the 11400 block of SE 217 Street at 9:00 pm.

Neighbors first reported the fire, which started in the covered walkway of the two-story house. The fire heavily damaged the front of the home, melting the siding, and breaking out two windows. Fortunately, the interior only suffered smoke damage.

The resident was able to escape out the garage door after hearing the sound of the fire and finding the front door blocked by flames.

No one was injured in the fire and Red Cross is assisting the displaced family.

The fire has been ruled “undetermined.” The fire investigator was able to locate where the fire started, but not the cause.

Thank you to Washington Water Damage for providing a free board-up service to the residents.
